

Warehousing

Warehousing jobs are mainly involved in the storage, supply and distribution of goods to customers. Warehouse staff are often required to operate fork lifts or deliver goods. Some positions also require an element of manufacturing or assembly. Weekend or late night working is likely from time to time.

Apprenticeships Advanced Apprenticeships

Access have delivered vocational training programmes for employers and individuals since 1983. Committed to quality training and continuous improvement, we have built a reputation for our professional yet friendly, caring and supportive approach.

We offer a variety of training programmes with companies throughout Tyne and Wear. Delivery is through a mixture of 'on' and 'off the job' training, tutorials and workshops. Although not strictly time bound, it is expected that an Apprenticeship would usually take one year to complete and an Advanced Apprenticeship, two years.

APPLICANTS SHOULD BE:

- employed in, or interested in, a career in storage and warehousing
- practically minded
- able to use initiative
- prepared to work hard to achieve success
- keen to achieve further qualifications
